

IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 31, 2018

Iliff School of Theology Appoints New Director of Alumni and Community Education

DENVER, CO. - Iliff School of Theology is pleased to announce that Rev. Tom Barlow been appointed as the Director of Alumni and Community Education, effective June 1, 2018.

Rev. Barlow, who is an ordained Elder in the Rocky Mountain Conference of the United Methodist Church, will continue to direct Iliff's Spiritually Integrated Financial Resiliency (SIFR)™ Initiative. SIFR is the school's program focused on reducing student educational debt and equipping future leaders for service.

In addition to SIFR, Rev. Barlow will also oversee the ReSource, Iliff's exciting new approach to continuing education.

He is also an adjunct faculty member, teaching courses in Methodist Studies and Leadership.

Rev. Barlow has a Bachelors in Science degree in Organizational Management from Colorado Christian University and a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary (Kentucky).

Founded in 1892, the Iliff School of Theology is an independent, graduate school that is recognized nationally and internationally for its emphasis on social justice, inclusiveness, and religious diversity. Ranked in the top 10 theological schools engaged in multi-faith education in the country, Iliff is committed to educating and developing leaders with courageous theological imagination.

Located in Denver, Colorado, Iliff is related to the United Methodist Church and offers programs and a diverse community that is supportive, challenging, progressive, and enriching for students. Courses are offered on-campus, online, or in hybrid formats.

###